INCOME AND EXPENSE DECLARATION (Packet #12)

The purpose of these instructions is to provide information about how to complete the forms and a link to the forms that you can use to for a party to complete the Income & Expense Declaration, which is required when requesting orders for child support or spousal support.

STEP 1: Complete the form.

You must complete the following form:

- Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150)
- All forms must be completed in a clear and legible manner and either typed (completed online) or neatly written in black or blue ink.
- Do not use white-out liquid or correction tape on your forms! If you make a mistake, simply mark a single line through the mistake, initial it and then enter the correct information.
- Complete the caption on every page of the form. Most forms have a caption box at the top where you will enter your name, address, phone number, and a second box for the Court's information and a third box where the names of the parties are written.
- If you have any questions regarding completing the form or would like someone to review your form before you file it, please schedule a document check with the Self-Help Center. You can do this online at www.monterey.courts.ca.gov/SelfHelp/.

An Income and Expense Declaration must be submitted with copies of any pay stubs from the last two months of income. If you are self-employed, you must attach either the last two years' Schedule C's form from income tax returns or profit and loss statements for the last two years. Make sure to remove any social security numbers that may appear on your pay stubs or tax documents. You should take your tax returns to court just in case the court requires them.

Make sure your listed expenses are accurate and realistic. The court may use your expenses to determine income if your listed expenses exceed your stated income and you do not explain how you meet the difference between income and expenses.

There is no filing fee for filing the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150).

How to complete the form.

Complete the information on the caption (as pictured below), check the appropriate boxes to indicate what you are requesting, and fill in information where required.

STEP 2: Copy the form.

Once you have completed the form and signed the Income and Expense Declaration, make copies for each of the parties (one for you, one for the other party, and one for the Department of Child Support Services (DCSS) if they are involved in your case).

STEP 3: Arrange to have the other party served.

A copy of the Income and Expense Declaration must be served on each of the other parties by mail or in person, prior to filing the form with the clerk's office. You may not serve the papers on the other party, so find a friend, acquaintance, or a professional process server (look in the yellow pages under "process servers") to serve the papers for you. Once the papers have been served, have your process server complete and sign the Proof of Service by Mail (FL-335). Make a copy of the form.

STEP 4: File the forms with the court.

Bring the original and your copy of the Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150) and Proof of Service by Mail (FL-335) to the first floor Family Law filing window at the Monterey Courthouse, located at 1200 Aguajito Road, Monterey.

If you need to mail your forms to the court for filing, be sure to include one copy of all forms, and a return envelope with sufficient postage for the clerk to mail back your endorsed copies.

The court will keep your original papers and return the file-stamped copies to you. Keep the copies for your records.

For additional assistance: The Self-Help Center provides workshops by appointment (or waitlist if space is available) and is located on the first floor at the Monterey Courthouse, 1200 Aguajito Road, in Monterey. To make an appointment, you can come in person, call 831-647-5890, or sign up online (go to www.monterey.courts.ca.gov and follow the links to the Self-Help Center and then select the workshop you would like to attend).
